

All the X's Have Wings

Helium

heaven can wait as you should know by now but you really don't care and that's OK too, somehow every time I ask you what you want to be you say a hooker or something really dirty don't feel guilty

I am that dirty to do you think you'll have time to change yourself later?
pay your dues to the devil and your payment to the maker every time I ask you what you want to do you say make money or something really rude don't fear the reaper

I have been down deeper too
