

Storm (Radio Edit)

Milk Inc.

I was struck by your lightning, it happened so fast
Like a flash, so exciting, but the moment passed, it didn't last, oh no
Am I the only one who feels the rain falling down on me?
Please don't tell me this is realNow my heart is torn, I'm lost in the storm
Fire in the skies but no love in your eyes
Now my heart is torn, I'm lost in the storm of your lies
Lost in the storm of your liesI could hear like a thunder, the beating of your hearts.
But the spell we were under, like a house of cards, it fell apart, oh no.
Am I the only one who feels the rain falling down on me?
Please don't tell me this is real.Now my heart is torn, I'm lost in the storm
Fire in the sky, but no love in your eyes
