

Wine From The Water

The Alan Parsons Project

You can take me up, you can wind me down
There's no escape, but I'll never drown
No wires or strings, no rough and smooth
Just fire and stings, watch me closely, watch my every move
I can count your money while I check your hand
(Ooo ooo)
And you know I just can't lose
Wine from the water, gold from a tree
I wouldn't fool you, there's nothin' up my sleeve
Look for a mirror, there's nothin' there
I get rings out of nowhere, money from thin air
I can break these chains, while I'm upside down
Well, it may seem strange, I don't hit the ground
Now you see my hand is quicker than your eye
You should know by now, what you see here all of it's a lie
I can steal from your pocket when I shake your hand
Ooo ooo and I know you can't refuse
Wine from the water, gold from a tree
I wouldn't fool you, there's nothin' up my sleeve
Think of a number, I'll get it right
Throw me in the river, tie my hands up tight
I can wind you up, I can turn you 'round
No cunnin' stunt till the lady's found
No coils or springs, just nice and smooth
No knaves or kings, find the lady, watch my every move
I can count your money while I check your hand
Ooo ooo and you know I just can't lose
Wine from the water, gold from a tree
I wouldn't fool you, there's nothin' up my sleeve
Look for a mirror, no, nothin' there
I get rings out of nowhere, money from thin air
Wine from the water, gold from a tree
And I wouldn't fool you, there's nothin' up my sleeve
Think of a number, I'll get it right
Throw me in the river, tie my hands up tight
Wine from the water
(Oh, wine from the water)
Gold from a tree
(Good gold from a tree)

I wouldn't fool you, there's nothin' up my sleeve
(You know I wouldn't fool you)
(No no no no no)
Look for a mirror
(Look for a mirror)
There's nothin' there
(You know there's nothin' there)
I get rings out of nowhere
(Get the rings out of nowhere)
Money from thin air
