

Watch Your Step (feat. Supreme & Lidu Rock)

Boot Camp Klik

Excuse me, excuse me

I be the poetry man that was sent here by the WWBCC fanclub
You called the number 1-900-GET-DA-BOOT and you asked the question

What is the world coming to

How come nature hasn't changed us

How come we haven't learned so many things

Things that rearrange our brains make us think insane

See we were sent here on a mission

A particular one this plan that was sent

That was broadcast across the planet earth

So to let you know open your eyes realize

Reps, sayin? SuuweeeeChorus:Rock:Yo watch yo step baby

Louieville: Watch where ya walk

Rock: When it time for some action

Louie: Yo these reps don talk

Rock: That first step a doosy

Louie: So watch where ya walk

Rock: When it time for action

Louie: Real heads don talkCheck this

I press this nigga next on my checklist

Get restless bring it where ya rest son di-tect it SEE

I gets hectic when these reps run through your set bitch

No diggy

Soon we bring it to crews a fifty

Se it be be niggas that make it shitty in ya city

A sound simply pounds leaving your grounds empty

You just can convince me

That you got what it takes TO

Swim in a tank of sharks become bait

Face 5-8 inches are better, however

Supreme, means I bring things ya can measure

Bring bad weather, like Starang, Louie and D.O.

See we blow muthafuckas to rubbish like we C-4Wee known to be triple R rated but gets down for dough

To of the first to hit the scene and the last to go

Move slow if you got the heart to get blazed

By the double one mac when you react and get laid

Leave yo back sprayed, attack fade turn your naps gray

Move yo monkey ass ore I let this fuckin?gat play

Melodies thatl mash your mainframe

To bring forth and understand then know why these two niggas came
 Get yo body stained my shotty plain far from complex
 Been trained by the realer soldiers, gods and the non
 But the bomb threat
 Has yet to be confirmed
 Shoulda learned that we de-bone these cats like big worm

 Alright here goes the submission holder MC folder
 Scold ya supreme sting teams Rock the boulder
 Yes I shoulda told ya
 We bomb crews like Oklahoma
 Don come any closer
 Leave those creepers sleepin?in comas
 Playtime over, draw ya toaster from ya hoster
 Roast ya then watch them fall like October
 It gets colder, than January
 Shoulda ran already
 Too late crews break 'cause they still ain ready
 Ain steady
 Defeat the weak who speak petty
 I sting you with lingual sharp like a machete
 Prepare to meet your maker
 Won hesitate to break a snake up
 Bomb crews like Arnold then Il berate ya
 These rebels are dissatisfied
 So many dead so many battlecries
 So many things that change so many niggas try
 To end me 'cause envy has taken over
 So many fake thugs so many slugs this shit gets colder
 As I got older had plans to roll like boulder
 And flip the whole set 'cause cash wreck for all my souljahs
 I fumble a well nigga that shelves who have to tumble
 Before I get locked and blow the spot like Bryant Gumble
 Prepare to rumble we servin?justice now must this
 Nigga get open like a leakhead wit a dutch spliff
 Now fuck this these reps are-a
 No need to crush shit when I touch shit
 I make this shit more spicier than mustard
 Ahh ohh ahh
 (Now hold on hold on son just cool out)
 Ahh ohh ahh
 (Breath in breath out)
