Dave Melillo

Don't walk away from this
It's on your finger tips
Babe, you can't deny
There's something there
Tell me what you think about meTalking to you day and night
Never knowing what's on your mind
Break it up and build it down
If that meant you would dream about meEverybody tells you that they live for a meaning
Did I ever mention that the meaning was you?
I'm sick of wasting time and laying to each other
'cause I do, what I do but I swear
It's all because of youTry to take advantage of the time we have
If I'm down when I'm with you
It makes sense some how
Don't let me hit the groundWanna feel it on your lips
Something that I can't predict
Believing in a feeling isn't something
That I'm used to but I'm opening my eyes to it
Wondering if I can commit
You know it would be easy if you said
You couldn't live without meEverybody tells you that they live for a meaning
Did I ever mention that the meaning was you?
I'm sick of wasting time and layin' to each other
'cause I do, what I do but I swear
It's all because of youTry to take advantage of the time we have
If I'm down when I'm with you
It makes sense some how
Don't let me hit the groundI've been having trouble sleeping when you're gone
I don't do to well at all on my own
But when I wake up and you're sleeping in my arms
Any place could feel like homeEverybody tells you that they live for a meaning
Did I ever mention that the meaning was you?
Try to take advantage of the time we have
If I'm down when I'm with you
It makes sense some howI know these moments are hard to find
So we're taking our time
Making sure that we do this right
People telling us love is blind
That's why I'm finding it hard
