

The Plague

Brimstone Coven

Corpses flood the city streets
Cold black hand of foul disease
Devils dance and demons sing
Victims writhe in agony
Black death horror tragedy
Horsemen ride on demon steeds
Sworn to sow the devil's seed
War and famine you will see
Pestilence and death will be
Black death horror majesty
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
Calling out your name . . .
