

Maybe

Alina Baraz & Galimatias

What do I do when there's too much of me, too little of you
What can I say when I now you're not here to stay
I can't explain something I don't understand...
Why this I let this get out of hand

Baby I'll get you out of my head
Maybe I'll focus all the things that you say
Lies on your lips, but there's love in your eyes
Maybe I'll forget you some other time

Why do I let you close the line. Everytime.
Why do I stay, If I know you're not mine
Right on your skin, I know that low used to close
How can I let you go If I know I'm so close

Maybe, I'll get you out of my head
Maybe I'll focus I'll the things that you say
Lies on your lips, but there's love in your eyes
Maybe I'll forget you some other time...
