Gravity

Architects

This is a wake-up call
No rise without the fall
Facing the great divide
You can run but you can't hide
You can run but you can't hideI met the devil and God and couldn't tell them apart
I thought I found the end
But it was only the startI've heard it all before
Aren't you tired of all of the violence inside of you?
Just let go
Gravity, hold on to meSo come and wash us away
Just thank fuck that we don't last forever
It's now or never
Is this the catalyst?
Just let me burn the bridge
That leads me nowhere
Because it's gone and it's never coming backBut make no mistake
It's just a matter of time before the wave breaks
So stand your ground
The earth will shake
So twist the knife, 'cause I am finally awakeSo come and wash us away
Just thank fuck that we don't last forever
It's now or never
Is this the catalyst?
Just let me burn the bridge
That leads me nowhere
Because it's gone and it's never coming backI've heard it all before
Aren't you tired of all of the violence inside of you?
Just let go
Well, what are you waiting for?
Aren't you tired of all of the violence inside of you?
It's all you know
Gravity, hold on to meSo stand your ground
The earth will shake
So twist the knife, 'cause I am finally awake
