Racist

Frenzal Rhomb

I get tired of finding out, that what you think is given in the best relationships is just a pile of shit Well I get tired of finding out that what you take for granted is thrown back in your face Sometimes it seems too late.
To educate when there's a national debate, on an issue that appears to be so straight-forward and you say it's alright, but it's not alright, it's not alright.
To ignore is to condone it if you think about it don't shut up. You might as well be speaking at the next one nation meeting.
And everytime you have a pointless dickhead relating another unfunny ignorant joke based on pigment you should say That belongs in yesterday.
Start today you can say it's not OK, don't go along for the ride well it's not too late for you to say when they say that it's alright well it's not alright, it's not alright
Some of my best friends are racist.
I'm not racist but...
I get tired of finding out that what you take for granted is thrown back into your face.
What a fucking waste.
Please don't feed me that old bullshit of the whispering of the soul, you must be dreaming coz my soul is screaming to shutup you reactionary fuck

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/