INTRO:

Oh, what a crazy feeling

You got my heart reeling

Oh, what a crazy feeling

You got my heart reeling

VERSE 1:
There was a light in the attic where the sidewalk ends
And the giving trees bark protected it from the cold
And I could see your brown bear where the wild things are Asleep under the twinkle of a little star
Wishing I was a prince on an island of treasure
Forever young, living in a land of never
Where grim fairy tales always have happy endings
And those without a voice have a Lorax defending
Children pretending, playing and laughing
Imagination, innocence, the youths compassion
Action and adventure and amazing fantasies
On a watership down, surrounded by enemies
A teen titan fighting secret wars
Where god loves, a man kills, and life endures
The last hunt of a phoenix saga
The return of a dark knight in positive armor, ICHORUS:

I love the words, the pictures

The voice that speaks to me

I love to live lifes treasure

The music sets me free

Take me away, lets roam now

Off to the new adventure

Another chapters written

They say well live forever

VERSE 2:
Im just a catcher in the rye picking flowers for Algernon
A mad hatter on the fly fighting Babylon
Writing sad songs, watching the world spin
Like Huck Finn rapping with the trees blowing in the wind
Never giving in, and never giving up
Fact, told em never fitting in I never give a what
And I dont care why, cause I dont know who
And when it happens Ill be where I gotta be and do
What I can, with my own two hands,
Until the death of a salesman protecting my fam

I love to rap, so I rap for love
I live for my wifes smile and hugs
And I struggle with pain, and fight to stay positive
And remain sane in the light of all lifes got to give
Through the grapes of wrath and the apocalypse
Like the great Gatsby, there aint no stopping this[CHORUS]VERSE 3:
I knew a king who knew the measure of a man
With strength to love like grandmas hands
In a land where the sun also rises
He gave a farewell to arms and a dream that was priceless
The generation of swine on animal farms
Obsessed with fear and loathing, in love with bombs
Rather learn the art of war than peace
A revolutionary life to fight the beast
He kept motorcycle diaries, writing on the road
And we laughed denial that wed ever get old
I grew up, and never let the dream die
Like an invisible man in a time machines lie
It was 1984 when sucka MCs dropped
And ever since then I knew I wanted to rock
And I do it for the love and you know thats true
Even though I hate the game, its a catch-22, cause I[CHORUS]BRIDGE:
(Can you feel it) Its just something I feel
(Can you feel it) Its just something I need
(Can you feel it) Its something that I believe
(Can you feel it) Its just something I breatheENDING:
Oh, what a crazy feeling
You got my heart reeling
Oh, what a crazy feeling
You got my heart reeling
Oh, what a crazy feeling
You got my heart reeling
Oh, what a crazy feeling
You got my heart reeling
