

Knife Called Lust (Hot Topic Bonus)

Hollywood Undead

[Intro: Shady Jeff]

LET'S GO RIGHT NOW! [Chorus 1: J-Dog]

I look alive, I'm dead inside,
My heart has holes and black blood flows.
We'll do some drugs, we'll fall in love,
And get fucked up while the world just shrugs.
With no thought logically,
We're wandering the streets so aimlessly.
I hate to see these kids just being,
Put down so painlessly.
And people say you dye your hair,
And wear tight jeans.
That doesn't mean,
That you can't scream or like loud noise.
You got a choice!
You have a voice!

And just because you showed no love,
And hate on us, you fucked our trust.
Now watch we thrust this knife called lust,
Into my chest until it bust. [Chorus: Deuce]
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that we're,
All the same.
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these,
That never change. [Verse 2: Charlie Scene]
I'm mad at the fact that your dad is an addict,
Your friend takes pills, he thinks it cures sadness.
I'm not here to attack or make you kids panic,
But it's just tragic the way you kids have it.
Everybody sins and it all begins,
It goes back around nobody ever wins.
And you stab yourself in the back,
Everybody just relax.
It all just hits so close to home,
We all got friends but we stand alone,
And you're on your own from a broken home,

You keep the truth inside and it stays unknown.
Nostalgia hit then it's time to quit,
And everybody acts like it don't mean shit.
And your friend will stab you just to fuck some girl,
Put your hands in the air and scream...
FUCK THE WORLD! [Chorus: Deuce]
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that we're,
All the same.
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these,
That never change. [Bridge: Shady Jeff & Deuce]
LET GO!
I'll bring you closer!
RIGHT NOW!
I'll hold on tightly!
LET GO!
We're going nowhere!
SOMEWHERE!
And things aren't over!
Harder times like these!
Crawling up on the streets!
Harder times like these!
We'll put you back on your feet! [Chorus: Deuce]
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's hard to face that we're,
All the same.
This love, this hate,
Is burning me away.
It's harder times like these,
That never change. [Outro: Deuce & Charlie Scene & Shady Jeff]
This love, this hate is burning me away.
And I fall to the ground with my teardrops!
And I get lost every time my heart stops!
This love, this hate is burning me away.
And I fall to the ground with my teardrops!
And I get lost every time my heart stops!
THIS LOVE, THIS HATE!
