I'm the One

Sam Concepcion

You're the one with eyes like windows
Nothing you can hide that I don't know
I can't see why you're keeping it a secret
But what you feel so deep, just let it show
It only takes a second to begin
And all I wanna do is let you in, oh

One touch can set it all in motion
One word in the perfect moment
One chance to take when it comes
One life is all that we're given
One love can make it worth living
Take a look back before you run
I'm the one

I don't know what you've been through
But someone somewhere left a mark on you
Well, I'm not them and they're not me
I don't believe in hurt you can't undo
Use the complications you can't face
But a single kiss can take them all away, oh

One touch can set it all in motion
One word in the perfect moment
One chance to take when it comes
One life is all that we're given
One love can make it worth living
Take a look back before you run
I'm the one

It only takes a second to begin
And all I wanna do is let you in, oh

One touch can set it all in motion
One word in the perfect moment
One chance to take when it comes
One life is all that we're given
One love can make it worth living
Take a look back before you run
I'm the one, I'm the one
