

Dying Day

Orange Juice

Somebody is whispering
Tongues are a-twisting
My eyes are glistening
Say hello to your debutante
And say bye-bye to true loveI heard your bugle playing
The sweetest music to my ears
I'm not afraid of saying
I'm close to tears
We'll run away
And I'll always believe
Until my dying day
My dying dayI say I'm not sorry
To cast you off, discourteously
When you talk so realistically
The thrill of love
Is gone for meI heard your bugle playing
The sweetest music to my ears
I'm not afraid of saying
I'm close to tears
We'll run away
And I'll always believe
Until my dying day
My dying day
