It Takes A Muscle

M.i.a.

When everybody leaves you lonely
Times are waste and sad
And the world is pulling on your hair
Just remember that for all you know
Good or bad, come morning
You're gonna live tomorrow if you don't die today
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love, yeah
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love
Now the fear got in me
It's got in me deep
That's where it's gonna stay and never leave
Someone come lay my worry
Someone come kill my pain
Someone come and put me on my feet again
Yeah, yeah, yeah
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love, yeah
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love
We gotta love one another
That's what the good man say
But I got too much trouble going 'round my head
Someone come and pick up my love
Take it all away
'Cause I could break down tomorrow
If I don't die today
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love, yeah
It takes a muscle to fall in love
It takes a muscle to fall in love
Ey, ey, ey, ey
