

Hope Is An Open Window

Diana Ross

Are we not more than hunger and music
Are we not more than harlequins and horns
Are we not more than color and drums
Are we not more than anger and dance
Give me courage so I can spread it over my face and mouth
Give me courage, give me courage
Give me courage, give me courage I walk these city streets see the people there
Look into the eyes of quiet despair
And the faces tell a story that words never can
And it falls to everyone of us to try and understand
Out of kindness
One act of grace makes the world we walk a better place Hope is an open window
Love an open door
To reach out for each other
Is what we came here for
Through an open window
We can see the way
If we hold on to each other, every day We build walls of suspicion with bars of fears
Tell ourselves we'll be safe in here
I know more brings us together
Than keeps us apart
First we got to tear down these walls within our hearts We might be strangers, we can be friends
You and I we both need to let somebody in Hope is an open window
Love an open door
To reach out for each other
Is what we came here for Through an open window
We can see the way
If we hold on to each other, every day
Give me courage so I can spread over my face and mouth
We are secret rivers with shaking hips and crests
Come awake in our thunder so that our eyes can see behind trees
Give me courage so I can spread over my face and mouth
Give me courage, give me courage
Give me courage, give me courage Hope is an open window
Love's an open door
To reach out for each other
Is what we came here for Through an open window
We can see the way
If we hold on to each other, every day Hope is an open window

Love an open door
Gotta be there for each other
Is what we sent here for Through an open window
We can find a way
To love one another Hope is an open window
Love an open door
