

Rain (Al Stone Mix)

Erasure

What is there to do?, only rain,
Falling down from the sky
Only me and you, fair and plain
Nothing lost and nothing gained Only the love nothing more nothing less comes between us
Temperature`s rising, my passion is burning inside My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light , same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy Only rain
I won`t settle for less, but no regret
See myself in your own reflection (see myself in your reflection)
Something in your eyes that tells me why
I`m a fool for your warm affection (i`m a fool for your affection) Only the love, nothing more, nothing less comes between us
Temperature`s rising, my passion is burning inside My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light , same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy Only rain
(you are my, my one true, my world in light)
(you are my, my one true, my world in light) My world in light saving all as one
A love that no one can deny
My one true light , same for everyone
A love we dare you to defy
