

Life Was All a Dream

Before Their Eyes

Crying out loud
for someone to save you numb to everything in life i've been dead to you for way to long

you take me away
away
now you're bringing me
back to life
back to life

here we are
buried under our lies in a world oh so cold

frozen in the moment
just close your eyes
life was a dream
so put me to sleep

i'll follow the blood
to you my God
bring this puzzle back
back to life

i've been dead to you for way to long
now you're bringing me
back to life
back to life

so put me to sleep

bring me to life life life
bring me to life life life

i'm on the edge of losing it all desperately looking for something crying for someone to save you something
through the words that someone gave you
something
breathe into me

he took me away
now he's bringing me back
now he's bringing me

back to life
back to life
bring me to life
