Victoria

Joyce Manor

Had such a bad time hanging out
Regret the choices that I made
I know it doesn't matter now
Won't be the one who walks awayVictoria
You've got me hanging on again
VictoriaHad such a hard time saying no
Locked myself out and had to climb
Over the back wall and scraped my arm
It bled a little, but I'm fineVictoria
You've got me hanging on again
VictoriaTook the screen door off the frame
Washed the blood off of my arm
And watched it circle down the drain
Put the screen down back in place
Now I'm alone againVictoria
You've got me hanging on again
Victoria
