Running A Wrong Way

Atb

I see you, watching me
Trying to find out how to be
Everything I am
Everything I amCouldnt this just be, for me
Couldnt you set yourself free
From everything I am
Everything I amI am, I amYoure running the wrong way
Stop trying, trying to be what youre not meant to beTheres no disguise, no surprise
If everyone had the same colored eyes
Wheres the passion
Wheres the passionTake the path, the one that lies before
A god-filled mind, you cant ignore
Wheres your passion
Wheres your passionYoure running the wrong way
Stop trying, trying to be what youre not meant to beYoure running the wrong way
Trying to be what youre not meant to beYoure running the wrong way
Stop trying, trying to be what youre not meant to be
