Rock N' Roll Is Free

Ben Harper

Say goodbye to tomorrow
And hello to today
Take a look at your world
In a brand new wayThe masters of convention
Count on you to never change
But the law of reinvention
Knows nothing stays the sameRock n' roll is free if you want it
Rock n' roll is free, so come and get it
Rock n' roll is free if you want it
Free if you want it, free if you want itThey're crying in the alleys
Screaming in the streets
With a dignity amongst thievesYou don't have to answer
If the question isn't clear
May not know where I am
But I'm glad it's hereRock n' roll is free if you want it
Rock n' roll is free, so come and get it
Rock n' roll is free if you want it
Free if you want it, free if you want it
Free if you want it, free if you want itSay goodbye to tomorrow
And hello to today
Take a look at your world
In a brand new wayPick the price you want to pay
If you think you should
But I have heard the news
And the news is goodRock n' roll is free if you want it
Rock n' roll is free, so come and get it
Rock n' roll is free if you want it
Free if you want it, free if you want itRock n' roll is free if you want it
Rock n' roll is free, so come and get it
Rock n' roll is free if you want it
Free if you want it, free if you want it
