

Hit and Run

Minority 905

Verse 1:

Why did you leave me in the dark?
This is another night I'm wasting on you
Why would you waste your time
Fooling me into something that's not true?
And I'm here, I'm still waiting

How can I know what to say
When you vanish instead of pushing me away?
Well I guess I'll never learn
And I'll keep playing with your fire 'till I get burned

My mind tells me to leave you alone
But I can't bring myself to listen at all

Chorus:

I would've fought for you
I would've died for you
And I'm still waiting
You made me fall for you
Are you gonna save me too?
Cause I'm still waiting
I'm still broken
From your hit and run

Verse 2:

I've spent countless nights
Saying I must have not done something right
Too many words left unsaid
It's girls like you I'll never understand

And I bet you're still sleeping
Not giving a second thought about me

[Chorus]

Bridge:

Are you the one that got away?
Or just another pretty face?
But I'll make the same mistake again and again

Now I'm stuck in my own chase
Blinded by my stubborn faith
And it's too late to escape

I'm still waiting, I'm still broken
I'm still waiting, I'm still broken

[Chorus]

Outro:

Why did you leave me in the dark?
This is another night I'm wasting on you
