

Anything For You

Jake Owen

Box of sunshine, bottle of rain
Fist full wind from a west texas plain
Tell me you want it baby thats all you gotta do
I'd do anything for you

I'd walk the mississipi
I'd drown in your kiss
Catch a star in a mason jar so you can make your wish
Whatever that maybe baby I'd make it come true
I'd do anything for you

Youre the reason I live, my religion
The air that I breathe, you are that deep in me
And I'd give you my heart and my soul,
Theres no fire I wouldnt walk through
I'd do anything for you

I'd call on the nightingale to write you a song
I'd sing you to sleep baby and I'd wake you at dawn
I'd wrap you in sweet dreams the whole night through
I'd do anything for you

Youre the reason I live, my religion
The air that I breathe, you are that deep in me
And I'd give you my heart and my soul,
Theres no fire I wouldnt walk through
I'd do anything

In the shadows of the last sunset
I'd bargain with God and say; take me instead
After all baby its the least I can do
I'd do anything for you
I'd do anything for you
