Love Hangover

Scarlet

Something inside has died
And I can't find
The way to get to you
And although I've tried
And I'd kill to revive it
But so on it goes
There were times that I
Would break down and cry
Just because of your sweet love
But now when I cry
I fear it might die
And I'm begging you to see
It ain't over
It's just a love hangover
It ain't over
It's just a love hangover
It's just a feeling inside
That I've realised
We have to move it on
But I'm desperate to know
That you feel it so
And that you want to keep hanging on
It ain't over
It's just a love hangover
It ain't over
It's just a love hangover
It's just a love hangover
