

High Post Brotha

Jill Scott

Everybody wants the hero, who just wants the man?
 Who fights with his devils and does the best he can
 Everybody wants a playa, I just wanna be friends
 Every, everybody wants a superstar
 Who got cars and ice, walks into the ghetto get pussy bar
 Makes all the girls look think twice
 Yeah, sista he got money and thangs but is he nice for you
 He's a high post brotha with money in his pocket
 He got everything a girl could want, think maybe he don't High post brotha with money in his pocket
 He got everything a girl could want, think maybe he don't
 Some sistas want the balla
 But mentally can he really play ball
 Dumbfounded by out the ghetto conversations
 His mentality's oh, so so small
 Get the cream, get the hoes
 Get the cars, he wants to go far
 But how far is too far
 Come here love, chicka love, let me holla at you
 'Cause what you got is worth more than a dollar or two Soil another nigga's game usually I wouldn't do
 But you my girl and I can tell that its bothering you
 This mother, ah must think that he a father to you
 You got vision but boys blockin' the view
 I know he payin' yo tuition
 Payin' to get the car fixin'
 He got juice or is he pulp fiction
 Heard he be strip clubs
 Trickin' 'dubs like he got big pub
 Is it his image or him that you in love with
 You on some shit but you was never superficial
 I ain't superficial when rent's due is trip what a chick do
 You don't like his mind the way he looks
 And you said that his breath stinks
 But all of that added up
 Doesn't equal a fresh mink
 Let's think who you are
 You the moon baby so fuck the superstar
 'Cause he's a high post brotha, money in his pocket
 He got everything a girl could want, I think maybe he don't High post brotha, money in his pocket
 He got everything a girl could want, I think maybe he don't
 Maybe he don't
 I think maybe he don't
 Maybe he don't
 I think maybe he don't
 I think maybe he don't
 I think maybe he don't
 Maybe he don't
 I think maybe he don't
 Maybe he don't

I think maybe he don't
I think maybe he don't I think maybe he don't
I think maybe he don't
I think maybe he don't Don't, don't, don't, don't, don't
I think maybe he don't
I think maybe he don't
