My Savior in Me

Dana Catherine

Tell me lord tell me lord how can it be that you would chose to use someone like me someone like me couple billion people in this world ya you have chosen to use somebody so unworthy I'm just another pen you put into the paper a reflection of my maker write your name on my soul I'm just another chapter in this story another expression of your glory have your way in my soul I surrender all control let my heart beat to the rhythm of your song make the world wanna sing along from the mountains to the valleys let my words speak the truth of life push out the dark bring in the light so the whole wide world can see my savior in me woah my savior in me woah my god I'm in awe of what you've done you poured me out to make a vessul of your grace and love couple million reasons I could find to show I'm just to broken to spred your light but still you shine I'm just another pen your puting to the paper a reflection of my maker write your name on my soul I'm just another chapter in this story another expression of your glory have your way in my soul surrender all control let my heart beat to the rhythm of your song make the world wanna sing along from the mountains to the valleys let my words speak the truth of life push out the dark bring in the light so the whole wide world can see feel me up feel my love I will never never be empty I will never never be empty pour me out like a floud oh will never ever lord you saved me let my heart beat (to the rhythm),let my heart beat ooh let my heart beat to the rhythm of your song make the world wanna sing along from the mountains to the valleys let my world speak of life push out the dark bring in the light so the whole wide world can see my savior in me woah my savior in me woah savior in me woah savior so the whole wide world can see my savior in me

Lyrics Submitted by Jozlyn Ybarra

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/