Toothgrinder

Lay stray to aband all punishment. Now effervescently feed the design. Bound naked and forced fed by government. Familiarity rapes the sublime.
Donâ€™t lose grip just yet. One more sip, forget.
It ainâ€™t nothing but a goddamn monster, harboring, dance a little closer. It ainâ€™t nothing but a god damn monster hold your breath. Maybe we will find the fire inside. (we will find the fire, we will find the fire)
Fuck, it ainâ€™t nothing but a goddamn monster, harboring. Dance a little closer. It ainâ€™t nothing but a god damn monster, motherfucker hold your breath now.
Every step you ever take, I will always, I will be ahead.
Maybe we will find the fire inside. (we will find the fire, we will find the fire)
Itâ€™s nothing but a demon, in disguise. These tiny bastards with baby blue eyes. These monsters, they bleed like you and I.
It ainâ€™t nothing but a goddamn monster, harboring. Dance a little closer. It ainâ€™t nothing but a god damn monster motherfucker hold your breath now.
Another circle around, treading over the same old town tonight. Another circle, digging, digging the same old ground.
This trek is all we really have. Another mile to the top. These mountains filled with peaks. I donâ€™t know why I just canâ€™t stop.
Maybe we will find the fire inside. (we will find the fire, we will find the fire) Fuck, dead digging the same old ground. Dead digging the same old ground tonight. Bound naked and forced fed by government, familiarity rapes the sublime.
