

It's a Trap

COIN

I don't know where I went wrong
Is it fate or just bad luck?
Tangled up like crawling vines
I'm back here for the hundredth time I could wait for you
If you want me to
Oh, oh And it's a trap my dear (x2) Creep out for a midnight drag
You said you'd quit, this one's your last
Maybe I take it all for granted
You only need me when you're heavy handed All the wasted youth
Tells a bitter truth
Oh, oh And it's a trap my dear (x4) You weren't always eager to follow
I could wait for you
If you want me to
Oh, oh And it's a trap my dear (x4)
