Lying To Myself

Kaboom

I've been lying to myself
Been saying that I love somebody else
And all the time, girl, I'm in love with you
Say, what am I gonna do? YeahIf I told you I'm sorry because I broke your heart
Girl, I didn't understand, no
I try to make her take the place over you
But you listen, she could never do, oh no, whyI've been lying to myself
Been saying that I love somebody else
All the time, girl, I'm in love with you
Say, what am I gonna do? YeahI know that love was made for two
And while we're apart
I'm supposed to wait for you, wohI've been lying to myself
Saying that I love somebody else
All the time, girl, I'm in love with you
Say, what am I gonna do? YeahIt's better to have loved and lost
Than not to have ever love anyone at allI've been lying to myself
Been saying that I love somebody else
And all the time, girl, I'm in love with you
What am I gonna do?
