Listen

ONE OK ROCK

You always call me full of regret
You want me to save you againAfter all these years, the days go by
I've seen you fall a million times
Everybody makes mistakesIt feels so hard to watch you hurt
From that pain a lesson learned
This is how you find your wayYou feel so lost I've been there too
Skies so dark no way through
Stories only scars can tell
I've got so much love for you my friend
Ride or die until the end
But only you can save yourselfYou just have toListen, listen
I hope that you know
Listen, listen
I won't let you go
I wish I could save you from the pain you've been through
And all I can tell you is the best thing to do
(You gotta)
Listen, listen
To your heartListen, listen
Listen, listen
Listen, listen ä¸€ã•¤ã• ã•'
