You'll End Up Crying

A-ha

Youll end up crying
With your mother's eyes
Pretend you cant see yourselfCould have been better
Could have been worse
You could have been yourselfBrought up in moms arms
Nowhere to fall
Now youre out climbing
Taking it allYoull end up crying
With your mother's eyes
Suffer that moments painCould have done better
Could have done worse
You lost in your love for moreNow youre out climbing
And you should know
Youll end up crying
Wherever you may goBrought up in moms arms
Nowhere to fall
Now youre out climbing
Climbing to fallYoull end up crying
With your mother's eyes
Something is lost from the startCould have been better
Could have been worse
Youre going to need me there
