Dwelling In Disdain

Callenish Circle

Seeing you simper awakes the
Gloomy part inside of me
It's making me shiver, sickening
Self complacencyDwelling in disdain
You keep on turning back at me
Just a matter of time before I'll
Show you that my hate's sincereYour contempt is really choking me, better step aside
Awaiting patiently, our moment will appear
This detailed script before my eyes
As long as it takes I'll be re-reading
Re-reading it every nightDwelling in disdain
You keep on turning back at meSeeing you simper awakes the
Gloomy part inside of me
It's making me shiver, sickening
Self complacencyAwaiting patiently, our moment will appear
This detailed script before my eyes
As long as it takes I'll be re-reading
Re-reading it every nightDwelling in disdain
You keep on turning back at me
How I try to turn away
Seems you're the next in line
