Firestorm

Xandria

Have you ever been inside a flame?
Did you ever play a burning game?
Would you do what I want you to do?
Do you like the way I'm burning you?Close to the flame Behind my eyes there is a beast
that longs for you
Calling my name
So if you're brave enough to risk it
follow me
Into the firestormthe firetormThere's no need to be afraid of this Let me melt you with my dragon-kiss
Let me walk with you the firing line Put your burn onto the heart of mineClose to the flameBehind my eyes there is a beast
that longs for you
Calling my name
So if you're brave enough to risk it
follow me
Into the firestormYesterday I had a flaming dream
We were swimming in a lava stream
We were watching an exploding sun
Counting sparkles until they were goneClose to the flame Behind my eyes there is a beast
that longs for you
Calling my name
So if you're brave enough to risk it
follow me
Into the firestormthe firestormthe firetorm!the firetorm.
