Unspoken

Crematory

Unspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your lifeYou see, you hear, you runAnd you awaken and don't know
If you're sleeping
Overrun and compromised
By the dreams of instant futureUnspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your lifeYou feel, you think, you cryDisillusioned and deceived
By the goals once pondered and
Betrayed and banned
By the ones, once trustUnspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your lifeUnspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your lifePursued and struck
Down by the lies that feast upon you
Lost your virginity
At the hands of space and timeUnspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your lifeUnspoken names never reach my heart again
Unspoken feelings no one miss your life
