

Taken Back (feat. Leah Culver)

Twofold

I held your hand so tightly,
Was gonna lose you to the war
You were breaking yourself nightly,
Even though you were made for more
The sky was yours and so was the future,
You said "one more", reopen the suture,
Swallow the flames, a silent attack,
Venom hits your soul, will never get you back...
The sky was yours and so was the future,
You said "one more", reopen the suture,
Swallow the flames, a silent attack,
Venom hits your soul, will never get you back...
Fly so high...
Fly so high...
You had the world and you had me,
Wrapped around your bright light
I'll never know a greater tragedy,
Than the day you met the night sky
The sky was yours and so was the future,
You said "one more", reopen the suture,
Swallow the flames, a silent attack,
Venom hits your soul, will never get you back...
Fly so high...
Fly so high...
