Why?

Satanic Surfers

How could I believe in what you said?
How could I be so fucking blind?
I was thinking with my stupid heart
And not with my wicked mindWhy am I so stupid to believe in what you say?
Why? Tell Me Why!I wish I could change everything
Back to the way it used to be
But no one in this world can turn back time
No not even precious little meWhy am I so stupid to believe in what you say?
Why? Tell Me Why!
