From The Blind

Daath

Seasons pass by the shells/of the names unknown /silent a void of thought darkening/cells of the mind

Taken from the blind/scorn for all their kind/their lives we bind
Within the throne
Secret overtone
The people chanting
Not heard as they're trampled over
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust in
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise/you place your...

Reason spills out like/our shouts to ears unheard/your thoughts devoid from enlightening/cells of the mind

Taken from the blind/scorn for all their kind/their lives we bind
Within the throne
Secret overtone
The people chanting
Not heard as they're trampled over
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust in
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise/you place your...

This avulsion, eager for divulsion
Thrust on limitless livestock, our battle waged
From the mist of diversion, our force shall further
The reign of blood, for ages to come...

Thoughts behind lock and key
Talk inside cause they won't go free
Silence is their only decree
Die inside cause they can't go free

Reason spills out like/our shouts to ears unheard/silent a void of thought darkening/cells of the mind

Taken from the blind/scorn for all their kind/their lives we bind
Within the throne

Secret overtone
The people chanting
Not heard as they're trampled over
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust in
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise/you place your...

Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise
You place your full trust in
Rise in fury/the start of progress
The broken promise/you place your...
