Pure In Heart

Gerda Van Biljon

one path that divides in two im walking each with my fears i struggle on witch way to choose im calling out will someone hear one voice that removes my doubt i follow its melody its a quiet sound when the others shout moving and feeling all of my need power of heaven deliver me come and be near me when i am weak wrap me and strength and never part enter my thoughts make me pure in heart im changing course even running now with the sureness i cant deny this must be who i really am im unafraid, feels like i can fly

come and be near me when i am wear wrap me and strenth and never part

my soul is in his hands my confidence rose i hold out my face and he makes me soul
