

Sorry Love Daddy

Brian McFadden

It seems like only yesterday
I held you in my arms and said
You will never need to fear the dark But unforeseen misery has come
Between your Mummy and me
We can love you more, now were apart Daddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this through Someday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love Daddy Everyday is filled with pain
But never feel that youre to blame
Sometimes life breaks
In mysterious ways I can make it up to you
Believe me, I am trying to
No matter what
Youll always be my babies Daddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this through Someday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love Daddy Daddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this through Someday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love Daddy Im sorry, love Daddy
