

Sorry Love Daddy

Brian McFadden

It seems like only yesterday
I held you in my arms and said
You will never need to fear the darkBut unforeseen misery has come
Between your Mummy and me
We can love you more, now were apartDaddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this throughSomeday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love DaddyEveryday is filled with pain
But never feel that youre to blame
Sometimes life breaks
In mysterious waysI can make it up to you
Believe me, I am trying to
No matter what
Youll always be my babiesDaddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this throughSomeday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love DaddyDaddy, hes got to go away
'Cos theres just no other way
To live this throughSomeday youll learn to understand
This wasnt what I planned
For me and you
Sorry, love DaddyIm sorry, love Daddy
