Colour Me

Dot Allison

Now I'm sliding, it's intriguing
So young yet too old to learn
That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry firstYou're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heavenYou're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heavenAs the tides they draw and close
And the seasons turn again
Will the moon still wax and wane?
Will you always color the day?You're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heavenYou're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heavenNow I'm sliding, it's intriguing
So young yet too old to learn
That summer is the thirst
The river always runs dry firstYou're in heaven
This is heaven now
You're in heaven
