Crystal Night (Live at Masters of Rock)

Masterplan

Why, why do we turn away
When they shout that hymn?
Marching so brave, their hearts beat on boldly right
Their souls belong to those of the weakWalking so blinded
Surrounded by brown coated lies
Hear propaganda that says
Bleed for the master raceWe're not under the same nation
The past has gone, don't fear the new
It's your only chance, your only salvation, yeahWhy should we be blond and blue eyed?
Chanting a heil, living a lie
Evil surrounds us, we lost our way
Darkness will lead us through fire and HellWe're not waving the same flag
Or going down the same road
So use your brains, just for one time
You can't rule mankindWe're not under the same nation
The past has gone, don't fear the new
It's your only chance, your only salvationNo, no, we don't want it, never more
We won't take it like before
Crystal night never moreWe're not under the same nation
The past has gone, don't fear the new
It's your only chance, your only salvationWe're not under the same nation
The past has gone, don't fear the new
It's your only chance, your only salvationNo, no, we don't want it, never more
We won't take it like before
Crystal night never moreNever more like before
No, never more
