

My My She Cries

Carole King

My my she cries, everyone dies
She waits, but can't get an answer
And all he wants to do is dance, dance, dance, dance
All he wants to do is dance My my he lies, look at those eyes
While moving in a little closer
Moving in on the girl he hardly knows, oh, oh, oh See how she flies, under the skies
He waits, but she no longer hears him
She's gone, gone, she's gone, she's flown away See how she flies, breaking all ties
Did anybody really know her?
Did anybody really know?
