

Gilded Lamp of the Cosmos

Ultimate Spinach

You're mind's clouds are flying
Shattered colors fall from the sky
Flowers explode into laughter
Summer swallows July

Behold
Behold and see

Flaming words ignite you
Frozen sounds cascade from your hands
Echoes of life drive you crazy
Because you can't understand

Behold
Behold and see

Whispering fires envelope and tint everything that you see Collapsing lies of murder
And truth is finally free

Behold
Behold and see

Conscious of now are your children
Yesterday has gone forever more Tomorrow has already spoken and told you what living is for

Behold
Behold and see

Behold
Behold and see
