

Today

Musiq Soulchild

People always on a search, tryna find that one
But it's funny how they may not recognize it when it finally comes
Think it's at the mall or sippin' at the bar
All these dates and phone conversations we doing it all for what? When your Mrs. Right is always Mrs. Wrong
But I never stop to notice you where there all along
Girl, you're everything I could ever want and need
Now it's all clear to me and that's why Today I've made up my mind
I'm gonna take this chance, bet my life on this
'Cause this precious love I've found in you My yesterdays are gone
Tomorrow's never promised to no one
I finally decided, girl that my today is you Now that I'm about to put myself
Out on a limb for love that means
No more at the club tryna pick something up
No more late night creepin'
Holler'n trying to see what's good for the night I wanna be the best man for you so
If I gotta change my ways then, baby, I'll do
Whatever I got to keep you here by my side and starting with Today I've made up my mind
I'm gonna take this chance, bet my life on this
'Cause this precious love I've found in you My yesterdays are gone
And tomorrow's never promised to no one
I finally decided girl that my today is you It took me a while to realize just how much
You really mean to me
Though what we have is so clear anyone can see But I was just tryna keep it on the low
I wasn't ready for love wasn't sure but now I know
I believe that you and I were meant to be and that's why Today I've made up my mind
I'm gonna take this chance, bet my life on this
'Cause this precious love I've found in you My yesterdays are gone
And tomorrow's never promised to no one
I finally decided, girl that my today is you Today I've made up my mind
I'm gonna take this chance, bet my life on this
'Cause this precious love I've found in you My yesterdays are gone
And tomorrow's never promised to no one
I finally decided, girl
