Thinking About You

Cleopatra

Ooh, thinking about you, yeahHey, I've seen you many times and I really wanna try
Just to make you think about me but I can't
To my friends I've told a lie, now I really wanna cry
'Cause I'm living without you in my lifeNow I'm thinking 'bout the day that we can share
Let the moments pass us by and nothing can compare
We are thinking 'bout the day that we can share
Let the moments pass us by and nothing can compareOoh, thinking about you, yeah yeah yeahOh, I feel I haven't a friend in the world maybe if I was your girl
I'd be happier while I'm by your side
I guess it may take quite a while, why not look at me and smile
There must be a chance for you to be mineNow I'm thinking 'bout the day that we can share
Let the moments pass us by and nothing can compare
We are thinking 'bout the day that we can share
Let the moments pass us by and nothing can compareOoh, thinking about you, oohI'm going 'round and 'round
But I don't feel dizzy
'Cause I, I, oh I, oh I
I'm crazy, crazy over youI am thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compare
We are thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compareThinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compare
Thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compareThinking of, thinking of about you
Thinking of, thinking of about you
Thinking of, thinking of about you
Thinking of, thinking of about youI'm going 'round and 'round
But I don't feel dizzy
'Cause I, I, oh I, oh I
I'm crazy, crazy over youI am thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compare
Thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compareI am thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compare
Thinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compareThinking 'bout the day that we can share
The moments pass us by and nothing can compare
