

Beelzebub

Bill Bruford's Earthworks

huahahahaha...
Pure and innocent
Long way from home
Old enough to stand on her own two feet
Cool and greasy hair
Took her to a place
Outside town where lovers meet
When they kissed ah-ah
In the backseat of his car
She felt his hands around her neck
She saw murder in his eyes
She realized he was the devil in disguise!
You came straight from hell!
Take her for a ride
Beelzebub Beelzebubhuahahahaha...
Scared and afraid
Begging for my life
Running on the edge to pass out cruel and evil me catches up with her Squeezes out her last breath
And no one hears her scream
