

Wendy (Can You Hear Me Peter Pan)

Tenille

I remember the days when I was a fairy princess in my palace singing pretty little songs and dancing along looked like Tinkerbell as far as I could tell

I was a prima ballerina sharing secrets with my teddy bear I drew pictures of my dreams and I wished one day that's who I would be

But I'm feeling lost and I'm losing sight
tell me where did that princess hide?

I'm not a little girl anymore
I'm growing up trying to find my way I'm changing fast
and I want to go back to Neverland and fairy tales freckles and pig tails
I'm trying to find who I am can you hear me Peter Pan?

I thought life was a puzzle I could put together easily without any pressure but pieces are missing and the picture is changing too fast for me tomorrow seems so far away while everyone's telling me what to do today

I'm confused and scared I just want to rewind but Captain Hook keeps stealing my time

And I'm feeling lost
and I'm losing sight
tell me Peter where did that princess hide?

I'm not a little girl anymore
I'm growing up trying to find my way
I'm changing fast
I'm trying to find who I am
can you hear me Peter Pan?

I realize I can't stop time so I'll keep Neverland in my mind

where I'll always be that little girl I close my eyes and find my way I keep my sights on the second star to the right my fairy dust and hopes and dreams I'll remember you and me I'll find out who I am can you hear me Peter Pan? x3
