Mr. Moods

Scintillated sequence,
Diamond covered tree,
Misty morning mirrored
In eyes that cannot see.
And the wind that blew there
Stole a page from memory
Time was my shelter
Silver darts of brilliancy.
And reflections held their ground
Midst rainbows of sound
Pearl tinted clouds
With crystal linings
Against the sky
Forever
And reflections held their ground
Midst rainbows of sound
Pearl tinted clouds
With crystal linings
Against the sky
