

Pieces

Motor Ace

There's pieces of you, and yeah there's pieces of me
You're not in my life but you're haunting my dreams
There's pieces of you, and yeah there's pieces of me
In everything I see
Took relationship advice from a magazine you like
Said it all, that's not how it feels
There's pieces of you, and yeah there's pieces of me
In everyone I see
You came, you left
We'll start this all again
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
There's pieces of you, and yeah there's pieces of me
Can't live without music it's all that I breathe
There's pieces of you, and yeah there's pieces of me
In every song I sing
You came, you left
We'll start this all again
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
Sometimes you feel it, but then it goes
I guess your mind's still caught in stereo
