

Road Of Life

Gentleman

What's happening, tell me what's happening
The majority is suffering
You see we trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life
This is just another episode of life
While Babylon a try to crack the code of life
Again, you see we trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life
This is just another episode of life
While Babylon a try to crack the code of life
Now we ask dem a question why dem doin' it
Life is precious as it is and still dem ruin it
Now I can see that you never had a clou in it
Your goal is hopeless and still you keep pursuing it
You watch my works instead of your yours I see you viewin' it
Your ways are so predictable there's nothin' new in it
The golden opportunity you have been blewin' it
Free up the road and stop curfewin' it
You see we trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life
This is just another episode of life
While Babylon a try to crack the code of life
Again, you see we trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life
This is just another episode of life
Code of life
Tell me who will stop the fire when it's blazin
And who will calm the water when it's ragin (only Jah alone)
'Cause God is so amazing
So amazing, God is so amazing
Just like the wind of time keep changing
I just go with the flow 'cause I m not gazing
(Got to keep it real) 'cause I m not rearranging
Don't wonder why dem doi'n it
Nor the reason they persuing it
We know seh money a dem idol
Dem nuh care about the people dem survival
Dem a grab it and go run with it
So tell me when dem ago done with it
Killing the people dem ability
And dem fight against dem upward mobility
We trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life
This is just another episode of life
While Babylon a try to crack the code of life
Again, we see we trodin on this road of life
Disciples of the truth and we are so proud of life

This is just another episode of life
